SITUATION

Sornhill Row is an attractive rural hamlet of 13 houses on the B7037 Galston Sorn Road.

The plots are very well located for easy access to Glasgow via the M77 (about 26 miles). Transport links within the area are excellent with a regular train service to Glasgow from Kilmarnock (8 miles) and Prestwick Airport with regular scheduled international flights is about 16 miles distant. Galston has primary schooling, secondary schooling and a popular leisure centre. Private schooling is available at Wellington in Ayr and Belmont, Newton Mearns (16 miles). Kilmarnock has a wider range of amenities including restaurants, theatre, hospital, cinema and sports complex.

The surrounding rolling countryside of the Irvine Valley offers a network of country lanes, ideal for walking, cycling and hacking. The popular Burn Anne Walk is a pleasant 5 mile circuit starting from Lockhart's Tower (Barr Castle) in Galston. The castle has had many uses over the years from a jail to a wood store. There are many opportunities for games sports in the area and some of South West Scotland's finest salmon and trout fishing. Ayrshire is renowned for its many golf courses including the world famous courses at Turnberry, Prestwick and Royal Troon and the privately owned Loudon Gowf Club by Newmilns is about 3 miles. There are excellent yachting facilities at Troon.

DESCRIPTION

The proposed houses will be one and a half storey. They will have an internal area of about 200m² with dining kitchen, lounge, bathroom on the upper floor, and 4 bedrooms (one en suite) and bathroom on the lower floor.
